N&W Koro Max Prime

If it's style, sophistication and reliability you're looking for, Koro Max Prime has the answer. Thanks to the different technologies and the highest quality components (normally used in dispensers that support much heavier workloads for preparing drinks), Koro Max Prime represents the ideal solution for a hot drinks service of high quality, with a menu to satisfy every taste. Style and simplicity are synonymous with the Koro Max Prime and its ease of use is down to the simple display and conveniently situated buttons, directing the user in their choice of preferred beverage.

Koro Max Prime has a wide selection menu and can offer up to eight different drinks, and through its versatility it is at home in any situation. The Koro Max Prime is incredibly small (only 24 inches/61 cm high) and light, making it easy to position and move. Thanks to its characteristics, Koro Max Prime is ideal for environments such as offices, meeting rooms, studios, small cafes and restaurants.

Compact and attractive, with its soft modern lines.
